small is plain. Instead of seeking investments in doubtful gambling enterprises, instead of wasting their breath in the blowing of financial bubbles, they should direct their surplus means into safe national channels. By this policy they would not only receive a large interest for their money, but they would give that money a continually increasing purchasing power, and the result would be that they would make more in the end than by investing in the most lucrative enterprises, the large dividends of which would be received in a currency whose purchasing power was continually decreasing.

The great mass of the laboring people should adopt the same policy. They should put everything they can into the small interest bearing notes of the United States. This course would result in removing to the extent of their combined investments, the evil of which they most bitterly complain—the high price of the necessities of life. This price is high, not because the necessities of life are scarce, but because the currency is redundant. The laboring people can reduce this redundancy to the extent of millions, if they will only put their savings of twenty or fifty dollars into Treasury notes bearing interest.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY, BY

C. R. PATTISON.

IT IS NECESSARY THAT THE PROPRIETOR SHOULD HAVE A HEARTY COOPERATION FROM HIS FELLOW-CITIZENS. THE PATRONAGE OF THE PRESS IS RIGHTLY REGARDED EVERYWHERE, AS THE TRUE INDEX OF THE INTELLIGENCE ENTERPRISE, AND BUSINESS OF EVERY COMMUNITY WHERE NEWSPAPERS ARE ESTABLISHED. IT IS A PART OF TRUE WISDOM FOR A CITY TO ENCOURAGE ALL SUCH ENTERPRISES AS ARE CALCULATED TO SUSTAIN, ADVANCE OR PROMOTE ITS WELFARE, ITS COMMERCE, ITS INTELLIGENCE, OR ITS HONOR. LET NO MAN THINK THAT BY LETTING THE PUBLIC TAKE CARE OF ITSELF HE IS NOT NEGLECTING HIS OWN INTERESTS AND HIS HIGHEST DUTY."

The man who Neglects to sustain a Home Press lacks these essential characteristics:

1ST. PUBLIC SPIRIT.
2D. A TRUE REGARD FOR HIS OWN SELF INTEREST.

FELLOW CITIZENS:

Read this plank in the Chicago platform—"Sense of the American people," Seymour, Vail, and others, Voo h's Cox & Co., as big traitors as ever lived, who only needed a southern sun to fire their cowardly hearts and make them full blown rebels, dared to thus desecrate the voice of the American people.—Where are they now? Forever sunk away, heaped with approbrium and disgrace, left to feed upon their own infamy. After four years of failure.—What an insult to the American people.

What a base insult to our heroes in the field. This was uttered at a moment when our soldiers under Grant and Sherman were hewing their way through to Richmond and Atlanta.—When Sheridan stood ready to swoop down upon Early in the Shenandoah.

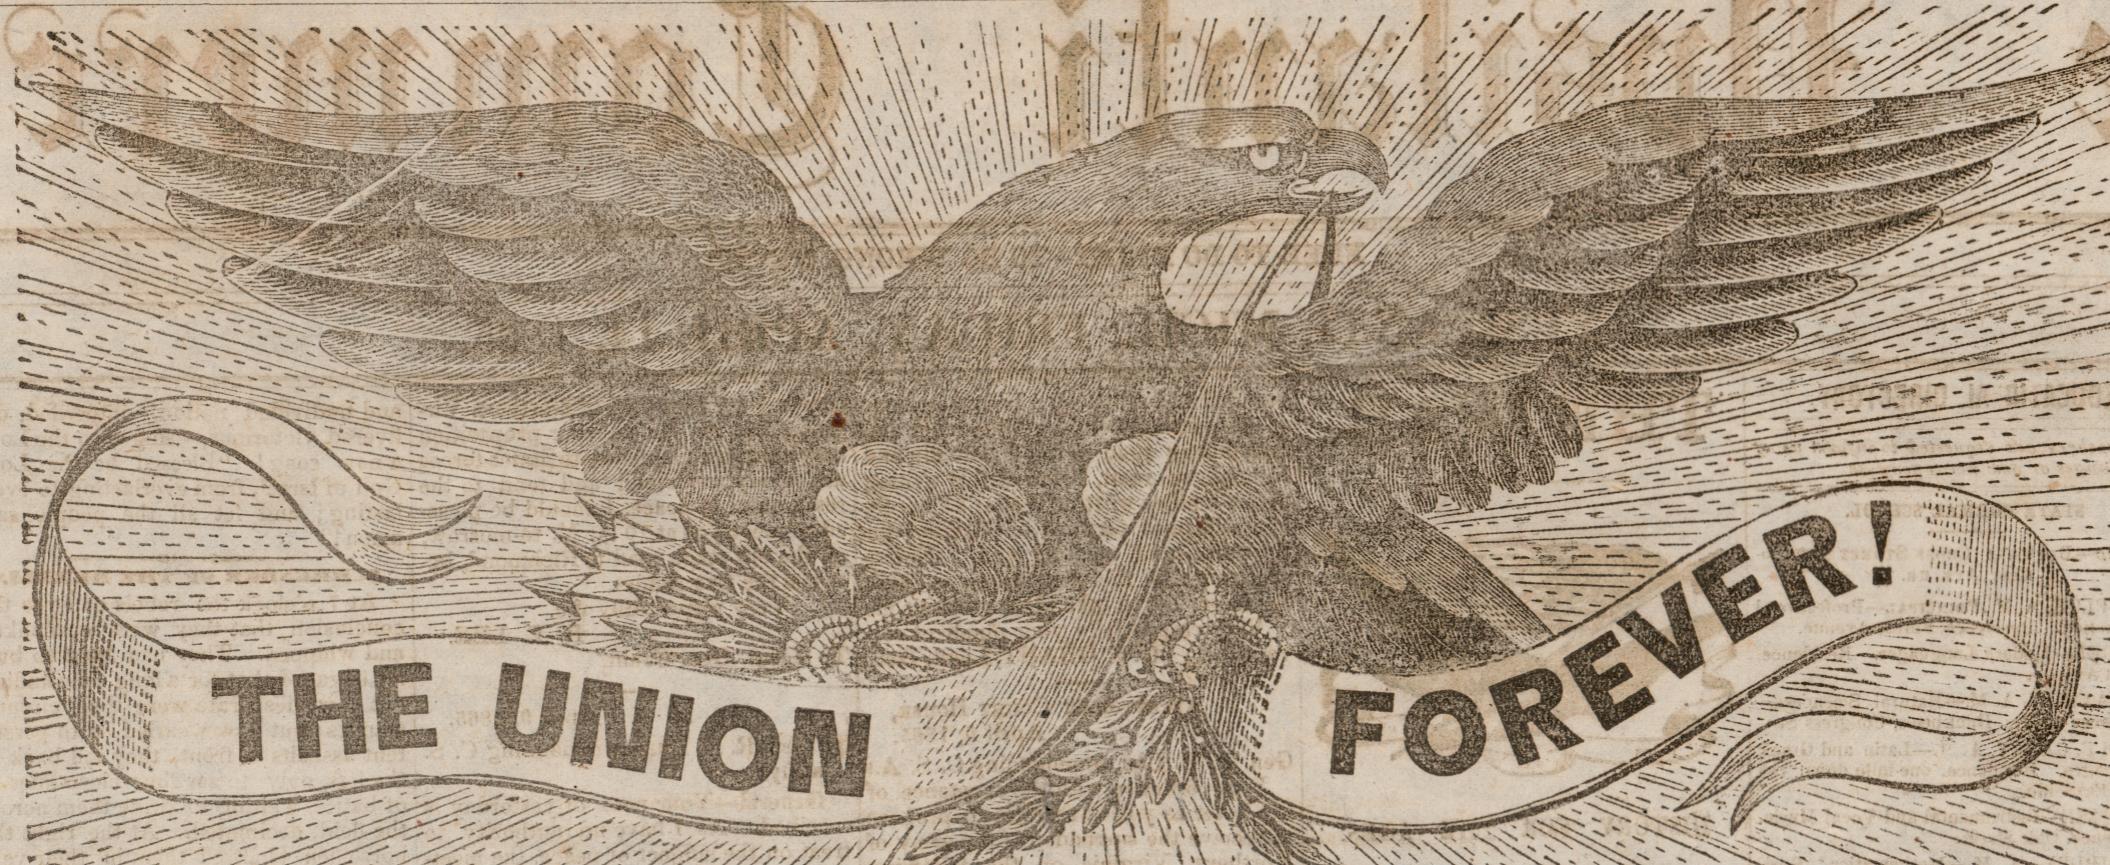

What is the real sense of the American people? We hear it in the roar of Artillery, the beating drum, the boisterous huzzas, the flags flung to the breeze, the loud acclaim of the people rejoicing over the fall of Richmond and the capture of Lee's army. A "failure"—a hal aha! The sense of the American people declares the Chicago convention a failure. The Chicago platform a failure, and a traitorous humbug. The Democratic party a miserable failure. So say New Hampshire and Connecticut rolling up their thousands in favor of the Union. Urned in one coffin and buried in one common grave the monster iniquities of this age, rebellion slavery and sham Democracy, unloved in their lives and in their deaths undivided. This is the sense of the American people. But read the cowardly plank. It would make even an old Hartford conventionist hang his head and blush for shame.

Resolved, That the Convention does explicitly declare, as the sense of the American people, that, after FOUR YEARS OF FAILURE to restore the Union by the experiment of war, during which, under the pretense of military necessity, or war-power higher than the Constitution, the Constitution itself has been disregarded in every part, and public liberty and private right alike trodden down, and the material prosperity of the country essentially impaired, justice, humanity, liberty, and the public welfare demand that immediate efforts be made for a cessation of hostilities, with a view to an ultimate Convention of all the States, or other peaceful means to the end that at the earliest practicable moment peace may be restored on the basis of Federal Union of the States.

SUBJUGATION.

We are to be by a certain class of papers and persons that we can never subjugate the rebels. We do not propose to subjugate them, but exact from them obedience to law. We mean to liberate the South, to drive out the usurpers, and restore to the deluded and betrayed masses the blessings of a free Republic.

ROAD WARRANTS on hand and for sale at this office.

SCREAM! OH, EAGLE, GREAT ARE THY TIDINGS!

CURRENT EVENTS.

Though expecting the speedy downfall of the rebellion, the American people were electrified at the downfall of Richmond and the capture of Lee's army. It ends the war in Virginia and breaks the last links of the Confederacy. The Secretary of War sent a dispatch to Gen. Grant thanking him in the name of the Government and the people. He ordered a salute of 200 guns to be fired from every military point in the United States. The enthusiasm throughout the country is unprecedented. The President has issued a proclamation in reference to the courtesy of foreign nations to our ships of war. Gen. Lee surrendered on General-in-Chief, three Lieutenant Generals, seventeen Major Generals, sixty-one Brigadiers and not far from 20,000 men. Richmond was damaged by the late fire at $2,146,210. The rebel Gen. Forest and Roddy with their commands have been captured by Gen. Wilson. We have taken Lynchburgh, Selma and Montgomery, Ala. Joe Johnston with his army is reported north-east of Goldsborough. The President has made a speech in which he says that a call for a National Thanksgiving is being proposed. He gives to Gen. Grant officers and men the noblest need of praise. He discusses ably and defends the Louisiana State Government.

ACCIDENT TO SECY SWARD.

About 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Secretary Seward left the State Department in his carriage and passed up Pennsylvania Av., to 13½ street to his residence, where his son, F. W. Seward and wife, and Miss Titus got in. While the driver was in the act of closing the door with his right hand, holding the reins with his left, the horse started. The driver held on, followed them and endeavored to close the door. Mr. F. W. Seward, seeing the danger, jumped from the carriage with the hope of heading off the horses and stopping them. They however, got away from him and from the driver, and when they reached the corner of Vermont Av. and H street, Secretary Seward jumped from the carriage, falling upon his right arm, breaking it just below the shoulder, and bruising his face. He was taken up in an insensible condition by several gentlemen, and carried to his residence. The ladies remained in the carriage until it arrived at the stable, where a party of soldiers caught the horses. The driver was somewhat bruised.

THE FOLLOWING is the diry sung by Uncle Sam's Colored Infantry on their march into and through Petersburg and Richmond early Monday morning. Though not exactly classic in its diction, it is quite expressive: Say, darkies hab you seen the massa, Wid de mufstash on his face, Go long de roadsome time dis morning, Like he gwine to leab de place? He seen de smoke way up de ribber, What de Linkum gunboats lay; He took his hat and left berry sudden, And I sposse he's runned away, De massa run, ha! ha! De darkey stay, ha! ha! Must be how de kingdom comin', An' de year ob Jubilo.

He's six feet one way and four feet toddler, His a'ways tree hundred pou', His cou's so big he could'nt pay de tailor, A'f it woudn't reach half way round; He drills so much dey calls him cap'n, An' he gits so mighty tred', I spec he'll try to fool dem Yankees For to tink he's contraband.

De massa run, ha! ha! De darkey stay, ha! ha! Must be now de kingdom comin', An' de year ob Jubilo.

One THOUSAND DOLLARS REWARD—Ran away from me on about the 3d inst., my old Massa, Jeff Davis. Said Jeff is about 5 feet 10 inches high; has a squinting of one eye, a runaway look; speaks rather quickly when excited.—Had on a snuff-colored coat, tweed pants, checked shirt, and slouch hat.—Suppose he will try and make his way to Mississippi, where he came from.—The above reward will be paid, if delivered to me at the old Capitol Prison, Washington, or one-half the amount to Libby Prison, Richmond.

JEFF'S COACHMAN.

Gov. BUCKINGHAM, of Connecticut, is re-elected by the literally overwhelming majority of 11,000. The Republicans elect all the State Senate, about three-fourths of the House, and all four Congressmen, a gain one. In November last Mr. Lincoln's majority in Connecticut was 2,406. There will be a de nomination from New England in the next Congress.

At the time the fire broke out nearly four hundred soldiers were below, as but a few were allowed on deck at one

ARMY Correspondence.

FROM THE 1ST MICH. SHARP SHOOTERS.

Camp of 1st Div. Amb. Corps 9th A. C.

PITTSBURGH, Va., April 1, 1865.

Editor of Ypsilanti Commercial—DEAR SIR:

Thinking, perhaps, you would like to hear again of the boys from Ypsilanti and vicinity, I will inform you that what is left of them that wear the

"blue ruin" of "Father Abraham," are in a flourishing condition, and, I think,

if the present weather continues a few days longer, the boys of the front will come out of their bomb-proofs like

"Sailor Onions," already sprouted

for a transfer, for I assure you, it has rained for the last three days, as if the sky was to be repeated again, but to day

it has not rained any, and to see the peach and cherry trees in full bloom

makes it quite pleasant again in this particular locality.

A few days ago I saw a number of the Ypsilanti boys, in the Mich. Cav.

Brigade of Sheridan's army. They were in good health but pretty well

worn out with long and fatiguing marches.

They had a considerable amount of the "sacred soil" of old Virginia about their persons; but then, that will stick

to a soldier several times during a campaign, more especially, in the spring, when it makes up of rain what it lacked for snow during the winter. Dirt is not a rarity here, but hard tack is sometimes.

The hero of Georgia and the Carolinas was at City Point a few days since,

where he was greeted with enthusiasm

by the soldiers, and received with all the honor due his rank and noble deeds

by Lieut. Gen. Grant and many others of our gallant leaders.

Sheridan's cavalry has gone to the left of our lines, and are now operating near the South Side Railroad. For the last two or three days, heavy cannonading

has been heard, almost directly in the rear of Petersburg, and it has been reported that Sheridan has torn up five miles of the road.

Last Thursday night about 10 o'clock

the rebels tried to make a charge on our lines, in front of the 3d brigade of our division, but failed to accomplish any thing except to drive in a few pickets;

but the shelling for about two hours

was terrific. I never saw so many shells in the air at one time as I did

then, and quite a number of our men were killed and wounded by them; a few from the 2d and 20th Infantry and 1st Sharp Shooters, but not any from

Ypsilanti. It is now about 10 o'clock

P. M., and I can hear heavy firing on the left, on the line occupied by the 5th corps and it has just commenced in front of our corps. I think it is nothing but an "artillery duel in the dark,"

but it might lead to something more serious. Ambulances are ordered to

"hook up," to convey sick and wounded

from Division Hospital to Meade

Station. There is a grand movement

on and, in a few days, perhaps,

I will have something more interesting

to write you.

A despatch just came in, that Sheridan has taken the South Side Road,

and the "rebs" are evacuating Petersburg. Heavy firing from gun-boats

on the James River.

Very Respectfully Yours,

Sergeant MARK VINING,

1st Mich. S. S.
